

I like the fact that I maybe able to talk on my cell phone while on the plane, BUT I don't like the aspect of so many people talking, if there were to authorize use of cell phones, there should be seperate sections for people who wish to talk. That way to block some of the noise pollution caused by talking